

The Canadian Journal of Human Rights (CJHR) is now accepting submissions for its fourteenth volume, scheduled for publication in Summer 2026.

The CJHR is published at Robson Hall, Faculty of Law at the University of Manitoba.

Our journal provides a double-blind peer-reviewed forum for scholars to critically engage with issues of human rights, humanitarian law and public policy, with a particular focus on matters relevant to Canadian society.

Submission Details

The CJHR has an open call for submissions until September 19, 2025. Submissions received after the deadline will continue to be considered and reviewed by the Internal Review Committee on a rolling basis. Submissions must not be under consideration by other journals or law reviews at the time of submission.
